"The City of Red Bluff is an equal opportunity provider"

1. Parks & Recreation Report-Recreation Supervisor, Karen reported that we are continuing to look for basketball referees, softball signups will be published soon.

E. COMMISSIONER COMMENTS:

1. Jennifer introduced a NCCDI Community Assessment Survey based on income levels. The data she presented was specifically for recreation and sports for the Red Bluff City area. It was divided into English and Spanish speaking families. There was much discussion is to how to make our parks more assessable to families. Jennifer thinks that if we can promote our parks to more businesses and family events that the parks will become a better place to take our kids to. Chris offered a survey that he has already sent out and received some response to. Karen will get the survey available on the Parks & Recreation page.

Commissioner Bob left the meeting at 7:45.

Chairperson Phillips adjourned the meeting at 7:58 p.m.
