C. CURRENT BUSINESS

1. Approval of Minutes – August 13, 2020 MSC
Torres/Miranda 3-0

2. Update on Proposal to City Parks Ordinances:

Shaffer reported that Chief Sanders and Finance Director Ryan are working with Yuliana Moreno from

"The City of Red Bluff is an equal opportunity provider"

Friday Night Live on updating the park ordinance signs.

3. Update on the Sale of James Ave.

Shaffer reported that TAC had estimated that the cost of 3 appraisals would cost approximating $10,000. They would also like to conduct neighborhood meeting, mailings, public notices to get a feel for neighborhood opposition and comply with public hearing laws before spending money on appraisals.

Miranda asked if the cost of the 3 appraisals was for commercial property or residential? She thought this was a little high for residential appraisals.

Shaffer will ask for clarification on this.

D. STAFF REPORTS

Recreation Report:

"The City of Red Bluff is an equal opportunity provider"

Shaffer reported that due to COVID-19, recreation has not been able to organize any events.

She also reported that Mike Skelton Public Works Maintenance Supervisor received the Bobcat and has groomed all softball fields and they look great. The Sher Wintle Dog Park was also scraped and looks great.

There was discussion as to who is still responsible for the maintenance of the Dog Park. Phillips agreed to call Jaye Curtis and ask if her group is still involved with the maintenance of the park

Torres suggested that we reach out to the public for suggestions as to what the future of the Dog Park. Is there still public interest in the park?

E. COMMISSIONER COMMENTS:

None

Commissioner Phillips adjourned the meeting at 6:38 pm.
