The group is proposing that the City agree to do the large maintenance projects and that the group would continue to do fundraising and little projects for the park. Commissioner Snodgrass said he'd like to see the pool open. Chair Phillips asked who was responsible for the upkeep of the dugouts at Tosh Field. She felt the field and dugouts looked in total disarray. Shaffer stated that the field aren't maintained in the winter and that in April maintenance would start floating and dragging the fields. She is not sure if they were going to upgrade the benches.
