D. Current Business

1. Dog Park

Suren Patel made a motion to move forward with the dog park and taking it to city council, and Patricia Phillips seconded the motion with 4 ayes and 0 noes. Bruce Henz said he was going to take the final rules back to TAC one more time. He also suggested that one of the citizens working on this project update the original proposal to update any plan changes that have been made. Suren Patel suggested that Bob Martin get letters of intent from the businesses that said they were willing to donate to show the council. Bruce Henz will work on finishing the staff report and packet to present to council.

2. Monthly Recreation Report

Amanda Bline reported that both Volleyball and Basketball are getting ready to start their second halves. She also reported that they had a children's camp over the Christmas vacation that saw very low attendance compared to years prior. The commission suggested she look into new ways of advertising, including school newsletters, school websites, the paper, and local radio stations to help build new excitement for the program.

E. Other Business

Bruce Henz informed the commission about an upcoming meeting at the Community Center to discuss the new location for the library. Patricia Phillips said she was excited to see something come to action and being able to enrich the community with activities.

Chairperson Phillips adjourned the meeting at 8:13 p.m.
