1. Approval of Minutes – November 18, 2015

Commissioner Martin moved to accept the minutes from November 18th. Commissioner Reyes seconded.

M/S/C Martin, Reyes. 5-0

"The City of Red Bluff is an equal opportunity provider"

2. Dog Park Fundraising/Promotion

Recommendation: That the Parks & Recreation Commission receive the final status update on the crowd funding campaign and consider new fundraising possibilities.

Discussion: The crowdfunding campaign ended with $280 earned. The commission reviewed potential logos for promotional use and made recommendations. The commission discussed other fundraiser ideas including a dog dress up competition.

The commission discussed potential project partners. Commissioners Martin and Reyes will contact Tehama Together to ask for partnership.

Action: No formal action taken.

D. STAFF REPORTS

1. Recreation Report

Supervisor Hurton reported the Children's Christmas Festival was structured differently and the changes were well received by the many participants. Changes included an application process and other measures to prevent duplication of services. No children who applied were turned away.

Supervisor Hurton reported that attendance was up in kids camps and gave a brief summary of the presentation that he recently gave to City Council and Sunrise Rotary.

Supervisor Hurton reported that the Community Center added a vending machine with healthier options and installed 3 tv's that were purchased with donated funds.

Supervisor Hurton presented a copy of the new book produced by Bob Grace for his photography class offered through Parks & Rec. The commission commended Mr. Grace for a job well done.
