D. Current Business

1. Dog Park

Bob Martin reported that the dog park group "Citizen's for Red Bluff Dog Park" meets every Thursday at 6pm at Summit Mortgage. They have a group of members that all have different duties. Bob also had been working on getting bids for the fence and gates. They had also decided to go with decomposed granite inside the fenced area.

2. Hyzer Ryderz TAC Update (Informational Only)

Bruce Henz had taken the information regarding the disc golf group to his TAC meeting. TAC was most concerned about other groups being competitive and trying to get the upper hand at the park. TAC did talk about using the idea of "Adopt a Park", which would allow groups to adopt smaller pieces of the park. The Hyzer Ryderz are most interested in taking over and rebuilding the bathrooms at Dog Island Park.

3. Monthly Recreation Report

Amanda Bline talked about Summer Softball and Summer Funzone. Summer Softball is currently in their first half with a total of 19 coed teams and 11 men's teams. Summer Funzone is scheduled to start on the 16th of June. Amanda reported that she was having a hard time securing a location this year.
