D. Current Business

1. Dog Park

Bruce Henz took the Dog Park project to a TAC meeting where it was discussed by multiple department heads. The department heads did not see many issues with the project at this point. Scott Timboe, Planning director, is writing a staff report about the project. Once the staff report is done Bruce hopes to send it to all the commissioners to review before it goes to City Council.

2. Monthly Recreation Report

Amanda Bline reported on the upcoming recreation activities including Fall Ball, Basketball, Volleyball & the Skate Competition on October 5th. She also reported that the Red Bluff Roller Derby girls have been using the auditorium at the Red Bluff Community Center to practice.

"The City of Red Bluff is an Equal Opportunity Provider"

3. Budget Report

This item was tabled for a later date.

E. Other Business

Gerry Reyes discussed the idea of potentially asking the casino to donate money towards the purchase of new park equipment. The city's current park equipment was also discussed; including the play equipment not being currently ADA compliant.

Chairperson Phillips adjourned the meeting at 7:34 p.m.
