2. Citizen's Comments

Audience member Dave Hall said the windsocks on the runway were tattered and the airport sign at South Jackson and Luther had graffiti on it.

Director Henz reported the wind socks were on order and he would look into the graffiti.

Audience members Jim and Carol Bowser asked if weed abatement requests could be sent to the hangar occupants on either side of their hangar. Director Henz stated he would check into the weed abatement procedure.

3. Current Business

3.1 Fixed Base Operator- Absent

3.2 New Airport Grant Application - Rehabilitation and Repairs

Director Henz reported that he submitted the new airport grant application for the design component of the rehabilitation and repairs of the runway. Henz reported he's already started on the grant application for the construction component for next year as well.

3.3 Electrical

Director Henz described the power source at the airport and talked about extending power to the hangars in the future. He said he has met with PGE and City staff and is exploring power and solar options.

4. Comments

Commissioner Chamblin announced the ALUC (Airport Land Use Commission) met September 19th and approved the new AG building near Wetter Hall.

Commissioner Wulfert inquired if the roof repair for the LP Hangar would be completed before winter. Director Henz reported bids for the repair would be advertised in the next week and he plans on completing the repair before it starts raining.

Adjournment

Chairman Ferreira adjourned the meeting at 5:54.

Respectively Submitted,

Bruce Henz
Public Works Director
