FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE CITY OF RED BLUFF

COVID-19 UPDATE

DATE: March 18, 2020

SUBJECT: City Hall Temporarily Closed to Public

CONTACT PERSON: RICK CRABTREE, CITY MANAGER

As a safety measure to protect both the public and City employees from spread of the COVID-19 virus, Red Bluff City Hall will be closed to public access effective March 18, 2020 through March 31, 2020 (unless rescinded or extended). During this closure, City employees will continue to work and provide essential public services to City residents.

PAYMENT OF WATER/SEWER BILLS: Bills may be paid by mail, automated payment, on-line or by dropping payment in the City Hall Drop Box. During this crisis the City will postpone water service shut off's for delinquent accounts. However, water/sewer charges continue, and bills must still be paid.

As circumstances allow, City Hall departments will continue working with reduced staff. The public may leave a message for a City Department at 530-527-2605 and calls will be returned as circumstances permit. Emergency callers should dial 911.

Updates will be provided as new information becomes available. The City appreciates the public's patience and understanding as we all work through this difficult time.
