D. Current Business

1. New Commissioner & Commissioner Vacancy

"The City of Red Bluff is an Equal Opportunity Provider"

Bruce Henz welcomed our new commissioner, Mike Jensen. Henz also informed the commissioners there are vacancies for several of the city of Red Bluff's committees. The city clerk will advertise and solicit for applicants. Any commissioners that know someone that would be interested should encourage them to apply.

2. Dog Park

Henz suggested commissioners get a story to tell and he can present it to TAC. Tim Morehouse mentioned that Rich Greene is interested in having a dog park and could be helpful in getting one started. Some of the issues that have come up in the past are: location, funding, sanitation, enclosure. Dogs must be under control when off a leash and shouldn't conflict with the other park uses. Jensen asked how the City of Redding Dog Park works. Henz said the commission should continue to gather information and our staff will be supportive and helpful however they can.

3. Campfire Park (Girl Scout Building)

The Girl Scouts obtained a grant and utilized volunteers to replace A/C, windows, siding, patio. Henz said they did a wonderful improvement that the whole city can be proud of it.

Vice Chairperson Morehouse adjourned the meeting at 7:26 p.m.

The next meeting of the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission will be held on November 14, 2012.
